DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Mankato (Minn) Record, May 9. War Between the Winnebagoes and the Slour.

On Wednesday night a party of Winnebagoes killed two Sioux warriors on the Winnebago reservation. Three Sioux had been skulking around the reservation for a few days, counciling with the disaffected Winnebagoes, which fact becoming known at the Agency, a party of Winnebago braves started in pursuit, and succeeded in capturing, at or near Lake Elysian, two of the Sioux Indians, whom they killed; the third made his escape. To satisfy the whites of the truthfulness of their story, they brought the head, arms and heart of one of the Sioux to the Agency. There is no doubt of the correctness of the above, as we have it direct from Mc-Sweeney, who was at the Agency at the time, and saw the head, arms, and heart of the murdered Sioux. The report spread very rapidly among the Winnebagoes, creating much excitement, and from 800 to 1,000 Indians assembled at the Agency, where they were to have had a war dance. A part of the scalp was sent to the Indians in Camp Porter, at this place.

A detachment of soldiers were sent out from the Agency to obtain the bodies of the murdered Sioux. Later advices from the agency state that another Sioux had been killed by the Win-nebagoes—making three in all. The two first were killed at or near Lake

Elysian, and the third about one and a half

Elysian, and the third about one and a half miles from the agent's house. The last one killed, stated, before he died, that a quite a war party of Sioux were on the advance, and that ten of them were sent ahead as scouts. The other seven, he said, were on or near the reservation in the timber. The war party, he said, would be here in three days unless they return. Captain Edgerton saw the three dead Indians, and thinks they are Sioux. It was at first the impression of some persons at the Agency, that the Indians killed were Winnebagoes, but those in camp here laughed at the idea, saying that Winnebagoes would not kill each other. Co. B, of the 7th, Capt. Curtis, ordered to the Agency, reaching there on Thursday, and a detachment of cavatry—lifteen or twenty-arrived there the same night. The above intelligence has been communicated to the commanders at the several frontier posts, and reliable scouts are on the alert. The Winnebagoes say that an Indian from Missouri killed one of the Sioux, a nephew of Baptiste killed another, and the third was killed by a party, among whom was Little Priest. The bodies were all mutilated in about the same manner that the Sioux treated HOR the next Thirty Days I will sell Orockery at white people. One of the bodies was cut up in small bits, and distributed among the head. One Indian had a finger, another fourth the heart, and so on. The sight is said to have been revolting in the extreme. A correspondent at the Agency furnishes us another version of the above affair. He says that on Wednesday night a couple of Sioux were discovered by a party of Win-

One of the Sioux was killed instantly, The other fell on the ground, and laid as if dead. Joe Tebo jumped on him. In the scuffle the Sioux turned him, and in good English said, "G-d d-n your soul, I'll kill you!"

A Sicus who had been living with the Winnebagoes all winter, immediately left. and was followed and killed this side of the Blue Earth river. His head was cut off and brought in. The Winnebagoes have declared war against the Sioux. It is reported that there were eight or ten Sioux in the party; if correct, the remainder are prowling somewhere in the

From the Mankato (Minn.) Record, May 9.

War Between the Winnebagoes and the Sioux.

On Wednesday night a party of Winnebagoes killed two Sioux warriors on the Winnebago reservation. Three Sioux had been skulking around the reservation for a few days, counciling with the disaffected Winnebagoes, which fact becoming known at the Agency, a party of Winnebago braves started in pursuit, and succeeded in capturing, at or near Lake Elysian, two of the Sioux Indians, whom they killed; the third made his escape. To satisfy the whites of the truthfulness of their story, they brought the head, arms and heart of one of the Sions to the Agen-cy. There is no doubt of the correctness of the above, as we have it direct from Mc-from the Agency to obtain the bodies of the murdered Sioux.

Later advices from the agency state that another Sioux had been killed by the Winnebagoes - making three in all.

The two first were killed at or near Lake Elysian, and the third about one and a half miles from the agent's house.

The last one killed, stated, before he died, that a quite a war party of Sioux were on the advance, and that ten of them were ent ahead as scouts. The other seven, he said, were on or near the reservation in the timber. The war party, he said, would be here in three days unless they return. Captain Edgerton saw the three dead Indians, and thinks they are Sioux. It was at first the impression of some persons at the Agency, that the Indians killed were Winnebagoes, but those in camp here laughed at the idea, saying that Winnebagoes would not kill each other. Co. B, of the 7th, Capt. Curtis, ordered to the Agency, reaching there on Thursday, and a detachment of cavalry—fifteen or twenty—arrived there the same night.

The above intelligence has been communicated to the commanders at the several frontier posts, and reliable scouts are on the alert.

The Winnebagoes say that an Indian from Missouri killed one of the Siour, a nephew of Baptiste killed another, and the third was killed by a party, among whom was Little Priest. The bodies were all mutilated in about the same manner that the Sioux treated white people. One of the bodies was cut up in small bits, and distributed among the Indians; the largest piece is said to be the nead. One Indian had a finger, another an erm, a third a piece of the breast, a fourth the heart, and so on. The sight is said to have been revolting in the extreme. A correspondent at the Agency furnishes us another version of the above affair. He says that on Wednesday night a couple of Sioux were discovered by a party of Win-nebagoes, a short distance this side of Little Thunder's village.

One of the Sioux was killed instantly. The other fell on the ground, and laid as if dead. Joe Tebo jumped on him. In the scuffle the Sioux turned him, and in good English said, "G-d d-n your soul, I'll FERNANDO WOOD GETTING INTO TROUBLE. -On the trial of Mr. Vallandigham, at Cincinnati, he " refused to plead, and asked time to consult his counsel, and for process to compel the attendance of Fernando Wood, of New York city, who should be required to bring with him the letter which he received from Richmond in relation to terms offered for the return of southern senators to their seats in congress, with the letter of the President declining to entertain the propo-

Now, it is a criminal offense for a member of congress to corresponed with the enemy in time of war; and it would not surprise us to find that Mr. Vallandigham, in his fright at being tried for treason, has committed fatally, also his friend and ally, Wood.

Mr. Wood has often asserted that somebody had communications with the enemy at Richmond; but he was always careful not to commit himself. We now know, however, that it is Fernando himself who writes and receives letters from the rebel eaders. Will he not communicate to the public the letters he has received, and the propositions he has before now refused to make public?

Forever float that standard sheet-Where breathes the foe but falls before us ! With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us

Within the lines of our army, where the civil power is dissipated, we can appreciate the necessity of martial law, and willingly bow to its necessary exercise, but in the peaceful state of Ohio, where it is not difficult to summon loyal juries before loyal courts, we cannot see the necessity of martial law .- Madison Patriot.

The lines of our army are everywhere, throughout the whole country. There is not a state that is not within some department in which troops are situated, either defending its territory or preparing and organizing to remove to the theatre of actual war. The state of Ohio is not a "peaceful state." Its chief city is continually men aged by traitorous armies in Kentucky. It is therefore nonsense to put in that plea for Vallandigham, as the Patriot does.

That paper knows that preparations are making for a draft in all the loyal states, and that much of the details of the enforcement of the conscription law must be left to military officers, under regulations from the war department. They cannot be impeded in the exercise of their duties by the processes of civil courts. We know what " the law's delay" is in ordinary cases, and there is no sensible man who will claim that an army could ever be raised and put in the field, if officers were continually hampered by writs and law suits in our civil courts. While war exists we must submit to be governed by the laws and tribunals of war, ic every matter which pertains to the war. If a man of influence like Vallaudigham tells the country that the conscription law is illegal and tyrannical, he directly impedes its enforcement. If he counsels disobedience to laws and spits upon the order of the general commanding in the department where he resides, as he says he does, he encourages others to do likewise, and to carry into effect his counsels of res What chance would there be of a peaceable enforcement of the draft in Dayton, or of the arrest of a deserter or a spy, if this demagogue is allowed to go on through the summer as he has commenced? The riot and destruction of property in that eity, consequent upon his arrest, tells the story of his bad influence. If he is not stopped ho may make the whole state of Ohio just what Dayton is, and plunge that " peaceful" state into civil war. lustead of arming legions to put down the rebel lion the citizens would arm themselves to butcher each other.

We must unite to destroy the necessity of war, and that is the rebellion. For a time the constitutional guarantee of the right of trial by jury must be held in abeyance, in all things necessarily connected | Shelby, charged on the works in the fore with the war, in order that the constitution iself may be saved for the days of peace waich shall come.

He who insists that all the laws of peace and the articles of war can both be in force at the same time in the same place, is mad or he is a fool. Whatever is necessary to save the country must be sacrificed-be it of the 31st New York. Steadily the collife, civil rights, or property; and the judge | umns moved forward under a heavy fire of of that necessity is the commander-in-chief artillery and musketry; not a break or a of our armies, the president of the United | boldly advanced towards the fee, until withan end, for the manner in which he has discharged his duties. This is what a state of war means and especially a civil war, which involves the whole country, and to this result all men of sense must come, who reflect upon the tremendous necessities and dangers which now threaten the coun- cheer was heard, and the brave boys bound try. It is not a time for faction, but of ad upon the works of the enemy, when a submission to the orders of the captain, (the only one we have or can have,) who guides the ship of state amid the storm of

The British lion "roars gently" again. The surrender of the mails of the on the purapet and demanded its surrender Peterhoff has put him in good humor. The London Observer thinks Mr. Lincoln is sincerely desirous of cultivating friendly feelings with Great Britain, and will "avoid in the rebel service, (the Washington batgiving just cause of offence." The Times, for a wonder, does not abuse us, but sug gests that an agent to so-operate with Mr. Adams will be sent out to help settle mattera. In the house of lords the belligerent party has subsided. When the English government shuts down on the building of an order to his men, wisely and nobly conpiratical vessels for the rebels we shall begin to think they are in earnest in endeav. and service of the corps. He says: oring to preserve peace, and that they have fail to notice a feeling of depression on the given up the idea of dividing and destroying the American republic.

THE " NEW MERBINAU" AGAIN .- A Novfolk letter, May 11th, says: "From inter-carrier who came over from Preston yes and to the country that we are not wanting in principle or patriotism. Your energy, terday, represents the people in western sustained and directed under the Divine Minnesota, as still celebrating and rejoic- blessings, shall yet place the Eleventh Corps ing over the capture of Richmond! Ope of the Tweigh Restery Boys on

The following is an extract from a private letter written by a member of the twelfth Wisconsia battery:

How does the conscription bill take as a beverage for the copperheads? It is a bitter pill for the cowardly encake. It is no place for them in the rear, they must be brought forward to the front where the so .diers can get at them. The soldiers have no love for the traitors at home, and if opportunity offers they will make their numbers much less. They hate them worse than they do the butternuts in front, for this reason-the soldiers like men that will fight for their opinions and deit manfully; not lay in the rear and take a vantage of their absence. These home traitors are worse than guerrillas. It would do me good to enforce the conscription. I do not think it would hardly do for the soldiers to be let loose at the north, with the present feelings existing in the army against cop-

The copperheads are greatly fooled when they think two thirds of the army would give up the ship to sink if they could, it is a hobby of theirs and a black falsehood. We want peace when we can get an honorable one to our glorious government. We are not fooling with the rebels, but are bound to conquer them, and if necessary the copperheads. There is one thing sure. this is the first and last war on slavery that will be in this country. Slavery is played out and we will now have what we have bonsted so much about, a free country in

We want Butlers enough for provost marshals in all the districts, and just make the copperheads cover their file leader for Dixie; they must be made to fight and the federal soldiers don't care on which side, yet would give them their choice and let them go with the butternuts for the color would correspond, and they would be where their sympathy is, and stand a good chance to stop the breeding of that kind of stock for a time. They must come to time, there is no use of fooling with them, while our hands are in the war, we had better close down on the traitors of the north while we know who they are. It would be a good plan for some of the loyal men to take the names of these out-spoken rebel sympathisers and keep it for future reference. It will do us soldiers good to look it over af ter this war is closed, and it might be of use where the population gets too much to

The copperheads want to be helped but don't want to help where they have to fight to do it-that's what's the matter; they must find fault with something only for an excuse to stay at home. They say if they are conscripted they will desert to the but ternuts; now that is just what we want them to do and then the punishment they will have dealt out to them is just what they occupied by Grant's army. deserve. Send them down here, they must be made to fight. If they don't like the good side let them take the rough one, but before they go they had better get their pants reinforced for it is all they will get.

The Fifth Wisconsin in the Fight.

The following is an account of the participation of the Fifth Wisconsin regiment in the capture of Fredericksburg heights. It is a heroic record, and Wisconsin may well be proud of this noble regiment:

"Sunday morning, May 3d, was a day full of excitement and interest to every one. General Pratt's Light Division commanded by Colonel Burnham, of the 6th Maine, charged on the fortifications and the noted stone wall, up towards which the whole di vision advanced repeatedly, but were repulsed with a heavy loss.

The New Jersey division, commanded by part of the day, but was repulsed with a heavy loss; so it was resolved that the Light Division should try their skill. All eyes were turned to the column now in motion. The right wing of the 5th Wisconsin was thrown out as skirmishers, at intervalof three paces, and were the support of the 6th Maine and 31st New York, and the left wing of the 5th Wisconsin was in the rear ing back in disorder, which had a tendency to throw the 43d into the same precicament But not a man of the ever-ready 5th Wisconsin and 5th Maine stopped a moment : but a victory was printed upon every brow of that noble band. Although their ranks were being thinned out at every step, they advanced. At that instant, a rousing volley was poured into their ranks, and the robs" were forced to surrender,

But this was not enough -- on went the boys, up a hill to the fortifications, where their artillery was mowing our troops down by hundreds. Colonel T. S. Allen of the 6th Wisconsin lead the van. and leaped up which was done in quick time, we capturing the men at their guns in the act of loading. We took some eight pieces of or tillery of the finest quality, the best battery tery,) with about eleven hundred prisoners. The old Milwankes Zouaves suffered terri bly. Out of 42 that west into action, only 16 escaped unburt. The regiment oat 188 in all-killed, wounded and missing."

THE ELEVENTH ARMY CORPS -- Major General Howard issued on the 10th inst., ceived, and looking to the future welfare " As your commanding general, I cannot part of a portion of this corps. Some obloquy has been cast upon us on account of the affairs of Saturday, May 2. I believe that such a disaster might have happened to any other corps of this army, and do not distrust my command. Every officer who failed to do his duly by not keeping his men together, and not rallying them when broken, is conscious of it, and must profit by the past. I confidently believe that every honor-

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, May 15. Advices from General Grant to the 8th have been received. He expresses satisfaction with the appearance of affairs in his vicinity, and states that Port Hudson is undoubtedly evacuated, except by a small garrison and their beavy artillery.

NEW YORK, May 15. Gon. Burnside arrived at Washington resterday, to consult with the President and secretary of war. A dispatch from Somerset, Ky., 13th, says: "The enemy is in force across the Cumberland. Morgan with the commands of Wheeler and Forest, is at Monticello. All communication between pickets is stopped. Affairs wear a stirring aspect." FORTRESS MONROE, May 15.

Richmond papers of the 14th received, contain a Charleston telegram of the 12th. reporting that the federals are unusually active, and have built formidable batteries on Folly Island, bearing on the southern extremity of Morris Island.

NEW YORK, May 15. A Fortress Monroe letter of the 13th, on the authority of deserters, states that the rebels are leaving the Blackwater, moving towards Petersburg.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Evening Post says that "it is said serious disagreement exists between Generals Hooker and Halleck. It is positively said that Hooker's new movement was countermanded by Halleck. Prominent congressmen have united in a vigorous protest against General Halleck taking the field. It is thought that the President may veto the project. There are no indications of an immediate movement. Many corporate commanders and stuff officers of the army of the Potomac, are preparing to leave,-Some are now in Washington.

MEMPHIS, May 13, via Cairo, 15. Special to Chicago Tribune.-The Jack son Appeal of the 7th says there is no defi nite information as to the movements of Grant. We could learn nothing that should have created any alarm. It adds: There is no necessity for a panic. Pemberton, it is reported, made a speech on Tuesday saying that Vicksburg was impreguable, and Grant was where he could not escape. The Jackson Appeal of the 8th savs The battle of Chancellorsville was in many respects one of the bloodiest of the war. The confederate loss was heavy, both of of ficers and men. Among the prisoners is Gen. Hays, commander of a brigade of Couch's corps. The Appeal says that Banks' forces are divided in three divisions. One is fortify ing Opelousas, another stationed at Chatalayor and the other at Baton Rouge. Gen. Smith is reinforced, and is confident n his ability to force Banks back to New Era, perhaps to Berwick's Bay. Three confederate gunboats have been ordered down the Red river to Alexandria Forrest has been ordered with his com nand to Jackson. A letter from Vicksburg of May 7th, says: Grant will cross the Black river to Warren ton, thence move against Vicksburg under the protection of the fleet, which will move

Special to Chicago Times.—The army is on the south side of Black river, waiting orders to cross. McClernand commands the right wing, McPherson the left. The enemy has not appeared in force since his retreat from Port Gibson. Gon. Osterhaus' division had a elight skirmish yesterday. Three hundred rifle! ahots were exchanged, and ten or twelve men slightly wounded. One piece of our artillery shelled the woods, and cleared them of sharpshooters. An advance is hourly expected.

During the attack on Grand Gulf, the gunboats were entirely driven off by the rebels, who had no evidence of Gen. Grant's attack in the rear, and only gave up when they heard that Port Gibson was taken and the army en route to Grand Gulf. Notwithstanding this, the navy claims the vic-

Headquarters Armt of the Tennessee, In the Pie d, Harkinson's Ferry, May 7. Soldiers of the Army of Tennessee-Once more I thank you for adding another victory to the long list of those previously won by your valor and endurance. The triumph gained over the enemy near Port Gibson, on the 1st, was one of the most important of the war. The capture of five cauuon and more than 1,000 prisoners, the possession of Grand Gulf, and a firm foothold on the highlands between the Big Black and Bayon Pierre, from whence we threaten the whole line of the enemy, are immortal henor. U. S. GRANT, Major General Commanding.

Washington, May 15. Special to Chicago Tribune,-The subject of the proper construction to be pinced on the 13th section of the conscription law is being considered at the war department. It has been represented to the secretary, and he is understood to believe that if that section is so construed as to mean that the government must let off any conscript on the payment of three hundred dollars, the purposes of the law will be in a great measure defeated, and conscriptions prove to a large extent, at least, c water haul.

Secretary Stanton is understood to hold that the law leaves it optional with him to receive the $300 or not. That he is not a federal treasurer; that he gives no bonds; has no financial officer under him; has no means of enforcing security for such sums of money when paid to his subordinates, and has no time to go into the business of gound. Gats dull and lower, 68a70, Pork hunting up substitutes. Solicitor Whiting, law officer of the war department is understood to concur in these views, and unless the president objects, it seems, therefore, certain that the whole! substitutes at their own price, if they dont want to go themselves.

Possibly a plan will be adopted of calling out an equal number of volunteers at the time the draft is ordered, said volunteers to be accepted only as substitutes for drafted men, and to receive therefor the government bounty of $100, and the conseript's commute of $300. On this plan, place belonging to the mills there.

volunteers would be permitted to nelect conscripts whose places they would take, and it is quite certain that few of them would consent to go as substitutes for copperheads. The advantage therefore, which its advocates claim for this plan would be its forcing peace men to bear their share of the burden of war, as well as republicans and war democrats. In any event, it is now believed the President will insist on the adoption of some plan by which the law will not be turned into a revenue measure instead a military one, by which a man, to carry a musket, may, in some way be produced for every name drawn from the box.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.] MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 16. The steamer Ocean Queen, from Aspinwall, has arrived. Private advices received here state that the iron-clad vessels of the South Atlantic fleet, were on the 10th of May thoroughly repaired, all injuries done; by the forts having been remedied. The armor on the hull and turrets is now perfect. It was generally believed that the 15-inch guns would be replaced by others of smaller bore, and indeed in two of the vessels preparations were in progress to ship away the pieces. Captain Rogers is Falten Mana senior officer in charge.

Gen. Stahl, a day or two since, sent a scouting party to Leesburg to hunt rebels. None were found in force. A skirmish with a few of the Black Horse cavalry, near Warrenton Junction, resulted in killing a citizen and wounding several rebel soldiers. We had three wounded. WASHINGTON, May 16.

Special to the Tribune.—The last of our wounded left on the other side of the Rappahannock have been brought across the river. As good care was taken of them while they remained in the enemy's lines as could reasonably be expected, our surgeons have been with them since Hooker crossed the river. Medical stores sent over at the suggestion of Lee were taken possession of by the rebels, but were issued to our surgeons on proper requisition. The dead of both armies have been buried, Record in Gen. Buell's case arrived here. There is reason to believe that the findings of court are such as show that the President had ample reason for removing Buell from command of the department of the BuiltrJC Cumberland, and that the government (nly erred in postponing his removal so long.

The general tenor of advices from Mexico received at the state department, to-day, are unfavorable to the French, who had on the 21st ult., made slight progress towards the capture of Puebla. The Mexicans are defending (the place with desperate cour-Comonfort had received reinforceage. ments and was about to assume the offensve. Gen. Forey was believed to be in a perilous situation.

It is said that the dying words of Stonewall Jackson were a request that General Ewell might be assigned to the command of his troops. WASHINGTON, May 16.

Special to Herald-Hooker came up from he army last night, and to-day had an interview with the President, lasting sometime, after which he returned to the army in a special bost. From what I can learn Hooker returned to retain his present command, and to conduct the army unaided by Halleck throughout another advance, up the river on a parallel line with the road whenever such shall be determined upon. This you may consider as reliable at presont writing.

The latest rebel reports from Jackson, Miss., are to the 11th. Grant's cavalry en tered and burned Crystal Springs, on the New Orleans railroad. To day at twelve o'clock the enemy are fortifying at Rocky Springs and Western Springs.

Gen. Osterhaus is at Cayuga with 3,000 cavalry and six or seven regiments of infantry. The enemy are re-inforcing at Willow Springs and Western Springs from the river. Grant will probably advance east, and not direct to Vicksburg.

Vicksburg, May 11th .- Nothing of im portance transpired to-day. A barge laden with coal ran past the batteries last night. The enemy's fleet above the city are in-

Charleston, May 12th .- The steamer Britian with merchandize arrived through the blockade. She started from Nassau on Thursday, in company with the steamer Norman, which has not yet been heard from.

Wilmington, May 13th .- The steamers Basha and Pet arrived this morning from Tullahoma, May 12th .- Bragg reviewed the northern Alabama troops yesterday. He addressed them briefly in highly complimentary terms. He gave a special and encouraging account of the situation in front, and expressed an ardent hope that they might meet an attack of the enemy. He leaves, to day, to inspect the front,

The Richmond Enquirer has a savage article on Burnside for his order against spies and traitors at home, and condoles with Vallandigham in his persecution.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, May 16. The Herald dispatch of the 15th says: The President has been closeted to day with Gen. Sickles. Upon Heintzelman's report the President has restored General

Stoughton to his rank. The steamer Ocean Queen brings $306,-000 in treasure; also 57 men of the California cayalty, throughout the whole country. There is not a state that is not within some department in which troops are situated, either defeading its territory or preparing and organizing to remove to the theatre of actual war. The state of Ohio is not a "peaceful state." Its chief city is continually men aced by traitorous armies in Kentucky. It is therefore nonsense to put in that plea for Vallandigham, as the Patriot does.

That paper knows that preparations are making for a draft in all the loyal states, and that much of the details of the enforcement of the conscription law must be left to military officers, under regulations from processes of civil courts. We know what there is no sensible man who will claim that an army could ever be raised and put in the field, if officers were continually hampered by writs and law suits in our civil courts.

While war exists we must submit to be governed by the laws and tribunals of war, in every matter which pertains to the war. If a man of influence like Vallandigham telis the country that the conscription law is illegal and tyrannical, he directly impedes its enforcement. If he counsels disobedience to laws and spits upon the order of the general commanding in the department where he resides, as he says he does, he encourages others to do likewise, and to carry into effect his counsels of resis-

What chance would there be of a peaceable enforcement of the draft in Dayton, or of the arrest of a deserter or a spy, if this demagogue is allowed to go on through the summer as he has commenced? The riot and destruction of property in that eity, consequent upon his arrest, tells the story of his bad influence. If he is not stopped he may make the whole state of Ohio just what Dayton is, and plunge that " peaceful" state into civil war. Instead of arming legions to put down the rebelbatcher each other.

The following is an extract from a private letter written by a member of the twelfth Wisconsia hattery:

How does the conscription bill take as a beverage for the copperheads? It is a bitter pili for the cowardly sneaks. It is no place for them in the rear, they must be brought forward to the front where the so. diers can get at them. The soldiers have no love for the traitors at home, and if opbers much less. They hate them worse than they do the butternuts in front, for this reason-the soldiers like men that will fight for their opinions and deit manfully; not lay in the rear and take a vantage of their absence. Captain Rogers is senior officer in charge.

Gen. Stabl, a day or two since, sent a Gleason Mrs H scouting party to Lessburg to hunt rebels. None were found in force. A skirmish with a few of the Black Horse cavalry, near Holmes Mrs L Warrenton Junction, resulted in killing a citizen and wounding several rebel soldiers.

WASHINGTON, May 15. Special to the Tribune.—The last of our wounded left on the other side of the Rappahannock have been brought across the river. As good care was taken of them while they remained in the enemy's lines as could reasonably be expected, our surgeons have been with them since Hooker crossed the river. Medical stores sent over at the suggestion of Lee were taken possession of by the rebels, but were issued to our surgeous on proper requisition. The dead of both armies have been buried.

MALE AND FEMALE DEMONS .- The Nashville Union gives the particulars of one of those horrible atrocities which stamp the character of the southern rebellion as villainous in the extreme. On Monday last James Smith, of company E, 17th Indiana volunteers, was captured by a detachment of the 3d Kentucky rebel cavalry, at Silver Spring, in Wilson county, and carried off. place and shot him with as little compunction as if he had been a brute. One of their balls entered his breast and passed out at the left arm; another entered his back, and also passed out at the left arm ; while the third cut through his coat. He him, as they thought, a prey for the vulture, having previously robbed him of his money, watch, clothes and boots. The unfortunate man had, however, life enough left to onsble him to walk, and he succeeded in making his way to Lavergne, where he arrived on Tuesday night, a forlorn and pitiable object. He states that before he was paroled, and while his captors were bearing him away, women, standing in the doors of a number of houses, as they passed, cried, "Kill the Yankes!" "Kill him!" "Kill

THE NATIONAL LOAN .-- A few months ago it was deemed almost impossible to raise a $50,000,000 loan immediately at any ordinary rate of interest which might be offered, while now, one of the most gratifying results of the conservative and sagacious plans devised by Mr. Chase, between two and three millions of dollars a day are passing into the national treasury, and the rate of interest averages less than five per

LE AND FEMALE DEMONS.—The Nas ville Union gives the particulars of one of those horrible atrocities which stamp the

I therefore hope, by close attention to business and a kind courtesy, to character of the southern rebellion as villainous in the extreme. On Monday last James Smith, of company E, 17th Indiana volunteers, was captured by a detachment of the 3d Kentucky rebel cavalry, at Silver Spring, in Wilson county, and carried off. He was subsequently paroled by Captain Howard Anderson, of company F, the same cavalry, and set at liberty. But he was not to get off thus easily. Three of the rebel bandits seized him, took him to a suitable place and shot him with as little compuncion as if he had been a brute. One of their balls entered his breast and passed out at the left arm; another entered his back, and also passed out at the left arm; while the third cut through his coat. He fell upon his face, his inhuman foes left him, as they thought, a prey for the vulture, having previously robbed him of his money, watch, clothes and boots. The unfortunate man had, however, life enough left to enable him to walk, and he succeeded in making his way to Lavergue, where he arrived on Tuesday night, a forlorn and pitiable object. He states that before he was paroled, and while his captors were bearing him away, women, standing in the doors of a number of houses, as they passed, cried, "Kill the Yankee!" "Kill him!" "Kill

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented seles of over one million bottles annually. It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairen is not only the most delightful hair dressing in he world, but that it cleanses the least pof scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a livrily rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is vold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

within the past few days, and are now receiving and have in stock over 500 auction lots of French, English and German ISPRING DRESS GOODS!

many of them bought, and will be sold Fifty per Cent Less than the cost of importation. Our entire eteck of Fancy and Imported Goods have been bought within the last ten days and during the late gold panic, and will be sold here in Janesville at less prices than our neighbors paid tor their goods in New York, that bought in the month of March. DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.

We have not bought a yard of demestic cotton goods since last October. Our stock is now consisting of BROWN AND BLEACHEED SHRETINGS,

OKEORS, SHIRTING, STRIPES,
TIOKINGS,
TARMER'S MECHANICS' CASSIMERES,
KENTUCKY JEANS,
COTTONADES

DRILL DRILLS They were bought then at a VERY LARGE DISCOUNT from the present prices. We have this day opened

FIFTY PACKAGES of the above goods, which we shall

SELL TEN PER CENT LOWER REPUBLICANS & COPPERHEADS. than the New York jobbing prices. We shall Keep Our Prices Below New York prices all the time, let them be what they will, until we are cold out of our present stock.

application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No.8 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy LEATHER WORK, and light manufacturing purposes as our standard ma-chines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Lines. and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warm all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the bass. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best maahine almost uscless.

By All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending a us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE.

which is a beautifully illustrated Piotorial Paper. Mean We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in initation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the neans to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their cemmand the proper machanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and baving extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, amalways liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great damability and repridity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and insight of the least labor. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasern of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as size rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will care more worse with less labor than any others, whather in initiation of ours or not. In fact, they are chemper than any other machines as gift.
